

Giant Egg Laid in North Marston, (Bucks
Herald, 25th January 1890)

“Mr J. Garner of the Bell Inn, has a hen which laid an unusually large egg on Saturday. The egg weighed five ounces and a quarter, and its measurement was seven and a half inches round at the centre and nine inches round it end ways”.

(There were no reports of how well the hen coped).