

History Club Objectives 260423

North Marston History Club (“The Club”) is a voluntary society established in North Marston (“The Village”) with the following objectives:

1. To stimulate an interest in and understanding of the history of North Marston.
2. To promote the preservation of aspects of The Village of particular historical significance, e.g. Schorne’s Well, St Mary’s Church.
3. To maintain an archive of books, pamphlets, maps, photographs and other memorabilia and artefacts associated with the history of The Village.
4. To facilitate the accessibility of local history to children.
5. To organise displays and events to broaden general understanding of the history of The Village
6. To ensure that buildings and artefacts of important local historical interest or significance are not lost, altered or damaged but are maintained for future generations to appreciate.
7. To act as a reference group to provide contextual background or commentary on any planned development in The Village with a bearing on a building or place of local historical interest or significance.
8. To promote the creation of pamphlets, books and publications in all media about the history of North Marston.
9. To associate with other local history groups and village societies.
10. To maintain a website unique to The Club.
11. To create and maintain a Heritage Centre in the village.
12. To create and maintain a Heritage Trail in the village, highlighting buildings of particular significance in the social history of the village.
